MY 2020 COVID-19 TIME CAPSULE FROM FUN4TALLYKIDS.COM

While our children may not yet realize it, they are living through a significant moment in history. The end of the school year is often a time of reflection, and this year more than most it can be healing and helpful for students to pause and consider who they are right now, and what these past few months have been like for them. Print off this COVID-19 Time Capsule as a way of allowing your children to preserve their experiences and memories of who they are at this moment.

RESOURCES FOR FAMILIES TO TALK TO KIDS ABOUT RACE, RACISM, AND RESISTANCE

We, too, are living through a time that will long be remembered, not only for the pandemic, but also for the recent events involving Ahmaud Arbury, George Floyd, and the outpouring of public sentiment that has been expressed through protests across the country. If you're considering engaging your children in discussions about race, racism, and resistance, you may be interested in the below "Resource Round Up" for parents, or this list of children's books that can support these conversations.
