District

A bill that would require third-graders to be held back if they fall a grade-level behind in reading is now headed to Gov. Rick Snyder's desk. Members of the state House and Senate voted today to pass the long-stalled, controversial legislation one day after a committee of lawmakers reached a compromise on its language.

DTE sent a letter informing Milan of increases for the coming year.

New Teacher Orientation will be held on Monday, October 3, 2016.

In the near future WISD will hold an Early Literacy Support and Coaching conference.

Staff

Some sad news to share, Kelly Dyc’s father passed away this week. We will keep Kelly and her family in our thought and prayers.

Symons Elementary's kitchen underwent a state inspection this week and passed without violation.

Superintendent Girbach will be attending the MASA Superintendents' Conference in Traverse City from September 21-23, 2016
